COLLEGES TO MERGE?

By Rudi Abdallah

havering@yellowad.co.uk

TWO colleges in east London could merge this year in a bid to plug a skills gap in the region.

The boards of governors at Barking and Dagenham College and Havering College launched a public consultation to gauge parents' appetite for the proposal.

A spokesperson for both colleges said: "It's very much about plugging a skills gap in areas like construction. You'll have the shared knowledge and shared client base."

The consultation lasts until May 12 after which the board of governors at both colleges will assess comments and make a final decision by July.

If the proposal is approved, the two establishments could merge in August, creating a new college.

A statement by the colleges said collaborating will improve the quality of further education in the region. They said: "We both feel that the creation of a new college will provide an exciting opportunity for developing further education across east London and will also provide the opportunity to enhance our skills we offer to young people, adults and employers, becoming an outstanding provider of choice."

Both boards hailed the move which is hoped will continue to boost the skills and employment chances of young people in both boroughs.

They said: "We are rightly proud of what we have accomplished as separate colleges."

"Building on our fantastic achievements to date, we aim to create a college which will play a full role in developing the skills and talents of learners and thereby contribute to the future prosperity and the social and economic development of both our own area and the wider London economy."

Leaders reassured prospective students for the next academic year that the merger will not affect their applications.

Both colleges were rated "good" overall by Ofsted at its last inspections and have a history of close collaboration.

Cocaine-taking cop dismissed over integrity

A POLICE constable serving the Barking and Dagenham borough has been dismissed for lying about taking cocaine.

PC Toni Harris was relieved of her duties following a misconduct hearing on Friday, April 7.

Harris was found to have given an untruthful account of events leading up to a sample that tested positive for cocaine on December 23, 2015.

She underwent a random substance misuse test on December 14, 2015.

Detective Chief Superintendent Matt Gardner, directorate of Professional Standards said

Harris's dismissal was correct because she had failed to meet the high standards serving officers have to meet.

He said: "To serve the public, police officers must be honest and act with integrity as a basic standard. PC Harris used illegal drugs and invented an untruthful account to cover up her misconduct.

The chair was right in their decision for dismissal". The officer had a case to answer in respect of the Standards of Professional Behaviour under 'honesty and integrity', 'discreditable conduct' and 'fitness for duty'.

Boss admits selling banned skin cream

A BUSINESS woman from Barking must pay almost £21,000 for selling banned skin lightening cosmetics.

Ashwinder Sachdeva, director of Glamour Touch UK Limited, East Street, Barking, admitted labelling and composition offences concerning 491 skin lightening products.

She appeared at Snaresbrook Crown Court where she was charged with sustained period of offending between April 2014 to March 2015.

Cllr Laila Butt, cabinet member for enforcement and community safety, said: "This case is a lesson to dodgy business people to say crime does not pay and that in Barking and Dagenham we will clamp hard on offenders and where possible make them pay for those crimes."

This case initially came from a consumer complaint to our trading standards and I would like to thank those officers for their persistence in securing this result."

Analysis showed a freckle cream contained mercury, while another called Fair & Lovely was counterfeit.

The court imposed fines of £7,000 with a further £9,000 costs awarded to the council for the offences in 2014 and 2015.

A confiscation order was granted, forcing the business to repay £4,750 under Proceeds of Crime legislation totalling £20,750.

Skin lightening cosmetics contain dangerous substances that can cause health problems.

Entertaining students raise charity cash

STUDENTS at Barking and Dagenham College entertained their way to a £1,155 donation for the Children's Liver Disease Foundation.

The fundraisers presented the cheque to the charity on Friday, April 7, after their successful Big Yellow Friday event at the college.

The day of entertainment included performances from Diamond, a contestant on ITV1's The Voice and Alien Uncovered, a girl band from the 2015 series of the X Factor.

The event was organised by Karen Boxall, the college's learner involvement co-ordinator.

Rheanna Stiles, enrichment

apprentice at the college, said: "We are now looking forward to many more fundraising events throughout 2017 including skydiving and possibly a new charity shop outlet on campus to gain continuous support."

NEWS IN BRIEF

● A RETIRED tailor from Ilford died of multiple organ failure caused by falling asleep on a hot water bottle he used to ease pain, a coroner has ruled.

Mohammed Abdul Quayyum, 72, of Falmouth Gardens, died on February 19, 2016, at Whipps Cross Hospital, Leytonstone, after a burn on his back he suffered on February 4 triggered existing medical problems.

Nadia Persaud, senior coroner, gave a narrative verdict, saying the burn was not a direct cause of death but was a significant background, contributory factor.

Mr Quayyum suffered a seven per cent burn to his back, causing a substantial exacerbation of his underlying medical co-morbidities, she concluded.

● WALTHAM Forest Council has been granted £1million from the government to extend its low-carbon decentralised heat network on Marlowe Road and Wood Street South in Walthamstow.

The regeneration of the Marlowe Road estate in Walthamstow is being used to extend the council's decentralised heating network in the area, used for low carbon and low emissions energy production.

The extended network will be developed as part of the regeneration and redevelopment of the Marlowe Road estate.

The expanded network will be run from a new Energy Centre built on the estate.

The Energy Centre and a first phase of homes will be completed in 2018/19.

Flat Roofing Guaranteed for Life

Advertisement

Around 70% of homes in the UK incorporate a mineral felt flat roof.

Mineral felt generally has a slow breakdown often allowing water ingress to cause unnecessary damage before anything can be visibly detected within the home.

A failing roof & the warning signs - Look for signs of cracking around the roof edge, pipes, upstands and roof lights etc.

Beware of blisters on the roof surface, during colder months they can become brittle and crack. Felt will attract moss and algae further degrading the roof surface.

IMPORTANT: - ALL PROPERTY OWNERS PLEASE BE AWARE when a flat roof is replaced there are Part L Building Regulations that the homeowner and the contractor must comply with. Please call for free information regarding the Part L Law. The homeowner should also be made aware that insurance companies will no longer accept any liability for any external or internal damage caused by a leaking flat roof which is over 10 years old.

The Problem

In 1999, High-Tech Roofing first introduced the most advanced flat roof technology to the homeowner. Protan, based in Norway, has a pedigree in the design and manufacture of water-proofing materials dating back to 1939, and producing the first roofing membrane in 1971. Protan is our preferred PVC single-ply flat roofing system and will cope with all climates, millions of square meters are installed here and abroad with a proven track record stretching over four decades. Protan is predominantly an architect-specified roofing system, winning many awards serving the very competitive commercial sector.

The Solution

A High-Tech roof is dimensionally stable and solar reflective, the material is unaffected by climate change and 100% resistant to moss & algae growth. The membrane has a unique anti-slip finish allowing the roof to be walked on and is aesthetically pleasing. As it is vapour permeable product it will never blister or become brittle and crack. High-Tech will create a 100% storm resistant watertight roof, maintenance free and guaranteed for life never to leak.

Let there be natural light

Many of our clients are requesting skylights and roof lanterns to be installed in conjunction with our roofing system. We offer a huge range of style and are all made to measure complementing any home.

High-Tech will carry out all structural works along with all external and internal finishing works. High-Tech can turn an extension or an ageing conservatory into a stunning thermally efficient orangery compliant with Building Regulation.

THE BIG MATCH

SUNDERLAND v HAMMERS

Premier League
Stadium of Light
Saturday, April 15 (3pm)

KOUYATE STRIKE LIFTS HAMMERS

Football

West Ham United 1

Swansea City 0

Brian Jeeves reporting from the London Stadium

A WONDERFUL goal on the stroke of half-time from Cheikhou Kouyate earned West Ham United three priceless Premier League points from this titanic relegation battle with fellow strugglers, Swansea City on Saturday.

West Ham's recent slump has been somewhat alarming. Five successive defeats had seen the east Londoners slip within five points of the Premier League drop zone, and with visitors Swansea also facing a very real threat of relegation, this was viewed by everyone connected with each club as a huge six-pointer.

Indeed, some harboured the view that this was the home side's biggest match since moving to the London Stadium, with the prospect of playing Championship football at the vast arena unthinkable to those of a claret and blue persuasion.

There was a visible nervousness to the two sides' approach. West Ham were the more proactive in the early stages, with both Michail Antonio and Manuel Lanzini troubling the visitors with their pace and trickery.

Lanzini's dead-ball effort was a whisker away as the home side provided the first meaningful attempt at goal.

Then Swans goalkeeper Lukasz Fabianski produced a wonderful goal-line save to keep out a Robert Snodgrass close range header.

Lanzini fizzed over from distance while Fabianski produced another top draw save to deny Andre Ayew after Mark Noble had fashioned the opening.

Meanwhile, Gylfi Sigurdsson almost profited from Jordan Ayew's pace, then Hammers keeper, Darren Randolph, expertly dealt with a Sigurdsson free-kick as Swansea began to offer a threat of their own.

But just before the break West Ham took the lead in spectacular fashion. Kouyate lashed firmly beyond Fabianski from all of 25 yards after Noble and Snodgrass had combined to play the Senegalese international in.

Sam Byram fired Ayew's cross into the side-netting as the home side looked to double their advantage immediately after the interval.

At the other end, James Collins put his body on the line to block from substitute Luciano Narsingh as Swansea looked for a foothold in the contest.

The Welsh side had adopted a more direct approach but offered little in the way of a viable threat.

Meanwhile, Lanzini warned Fabianski's gloves, then sent a free-kick a fraction too high, while Jonathan Calleri's attempt was deflected on to the roof of the net as the home side continued to ask the sterner questions.

Luciano Narsingh should have done better for the visitors, firing wayward after racing clear of a static Hammers back line. Then Collins produced a superb clearance from Jefferson Montero centre. West Ham responded, but once again Fabianski was Swansea's saviour, turning over Ayew's stinging close-range effort.

In the closing stages, Calleri wasted a glorious opportunity to put the outcome beyond reasonable doubt, firing wide after Lanzini picked him out with pinpoint precision. But the home side had done enough. As a result of this victory, West Ham lifted themselves into 14th place, eight points clear of the relegation zone.

Speaking after the game a clearly relieved Slaven Bilic said: "We are delighted. The pressure the players were under – forget me – they are the ones who perform in front of nearly 60,000, they gave everything and that's why I'm very pleased."

"The crowd were behind us. We knew they were going to be from the start, but we kept them behind us for 90 minutes. Why? Because they recognised that we gave everything. They were so important."

"It was a good day for us, especially when it's well deserved against a team who are below us. It opens the gap even bigger. It's a really good day."

Bilic insisted that his side still need to reach the 40-point mark to ensure their survival in the Premier League, saying: "There is still a big job to be done."

"We have opened the gap a bit more now. But we opened that gap two months ago when we won six out of nine. With five defeats we have closed that gap. I want those four points as soon as possible."

Swansea boss Paul Clement said: "A poor performance, not what we are looking for after the run that we've been on."

"I thought it was a poor game lacking quality. Two teams playing with a lot of anxiety. There was a lot of fear in our play. Our technical quality was really disappointing."

"With seven games to go and being in a real battle for survival, you expect the basics to be done a lot better than that."

West Ham United are next in Premier League action on Saturday, April 15 when they travel to the Stadium of Light to take on Sunderland (3pm).

Non-league round-up

Clarets close in on play-off place

By Brian Jeeves

CHELMSFORD City ended a troubled week by moving to within one victory of securing a National League South play-off place with a 3-0 win over Poole Town at the Melbourn Stadium.

Following the collapse of a proposed takeover bid from the Jade Global Group, the mid-Essex club's future had been left in some doubt.

However, Rod Stringer's men put their troubles to one side thanks to a brace from Shaun Jeffers and a Louie Theophanous strike.

Elsewhere in the National South, Concord Rangers were on the wrong end of a 5-0 defeat at the hands of Bath City at the Aspect Arena. Andy Watkins, Chas Hemmings, Axel Andresson (penalty) and Shaun McCoulsky (2), doing the damage for the visitors. East Thurrock United were also beaten. The Rocks went down 2-1 at league leaders Maidenhead United. Ben Wood with the Rookery Hill club's consolation.

In the National League top division, Dagenham & Redbridge won 4-1 at FA Trophy finalists Macclesfield Town. Jordan Maguire-Drew scored twice for the Daggers, while Luke Guttridge and Corey Whitley (pen) put the icing on the cake for the Victoria Road outfit.

Elsewhere, Braintree Town slipped to a 2-1 defeat at the hands of Dover Athletic at Cressing Road. Michael Cheek with the Iron's only goals.

Harlow Town were the big winners in the Ryman League Premier Division. Alex Read bagged a hat-trick, while Junior Dadson hit two as relegated Grays Athletic were swept aside by five goals to nil.

An own-goal from Adrian Clifton helped Canvey Island to a 1-1 draw at Staines Town.

But Billericay Town slipped to a surprise 4-2 defeat to Enfield Town at New Lodge. Joseph Ellul and former Spurs man Jamie O'Hara with the Blues goals in front of a bumper 1,251 crowd.

Brightingsea Regent clinched the Ryman League Division One North title with a 4-1 win over Romford at North Road. Phil Kelly, Billy Hunt (2) and Aaron Condon scored the all-important goals. Jack Browne-Sykes responded for Romford.

Hussein Jaffa, Michael Toner and Mason Bloomfield found the net as Aveley were 3-0 winners over Heybridge Swifts, while Kieran English, Ryan O'Rawe and Andrew Freeman scored Brentwood Town's goals in a 3-1 success over Haringey Borough. Adrian Markus replied for the north Londoners.

Elliot Styles' late strike was enough for AFC Hornchurch to pick up a 1-0 win at Waltham Abbey, while Bowers & Pitsea's clash with Thamesmead Town ended goalless. Reece Conway bagged Tilbury's goal in a 1-1 draw with Wroxham, while Maldon & Tiptree were held to a 2-2 draw by Dereham Town. Montel Agyemang and Sam Newton found the net for the Jammers, who had earlier been 2-0 down.

In the Essex Senior League, champions Barking were convincing 5-0 winners at Burnham Ramblers and there was a 4-1 success for West Essex over Sporting Bengal United while Ilford grabbed a single goal win over Stansted.

Sawbridgeworth Town enjoyed their afternoon at the seaside, beating Southend Manor 2-0 at the Southchurch Park Arena, while Wadham Lodge picked up all three points with a 1-0 triumph against Takeley.

Highlights from the ProKit UK Essex Olympian League saw Canning Town and Rayleigh Town play out a thrilling 4-4 Premier Division draw. White Ensign also hit four, seeing off Harold Wood Athletic 4-1 at the Len Forge Centre.

In Division One London APSA and Shenfield AFC shared six goals, while in Division Two FC Hamlets won 4-1 at Upminster.

In the semi-final of the Essex Olympian League Senior Cup, Basildon Town and Frenford Senior played out an entertaining 2-2 draw before the New Towners progressed to the final 4-3 on penalties.

Writing on the wall as punchdrunk O's fail again

Cambridge United 3
Leyton Orient 0

ROCK-BOTTOM Leyton Orient's plight looks increasingly bleak after suffering a sixth consecutive defeat last Saturday.

The O's, whose players and staff are reportedly still awaiting their March wages, were sunk by three goals either side of the break from Luke Berry, Liam O'Neil and George Maris, to leave them an eye-watering 10 points from safety, with only five games remaining.

Orient face a daunting Good Friday trip to play-off hopefuls Luton Town (kick-off 3pm), before entertaining Hartlepool United on Bank Holiday Monday (also 3pm).
